DIRECTIONS

(via narrow, hump-back bridge)

From Plymouth or Exeter:

Come off the A38 sign posted for A384 Totnes.

Turn left (from Exeter) or right (from Plymouth) onto the A384 towards Totnes.

You will soon pass the Dartbridge Inn on your left. Take the next right turn (see picture), which goes over a narrow bridge across the River Dart.

Follow the road to the right [BEWARE HUGE POTHOLE ON LEFT HALF WAY ALONG] and after 200 metres you will come to a one storey stone building. This is green fuse.

From Totnes:

Follow signs towards Buckfastleigh. Turn right at the Dartington roundabout still towards Buckfastleigh.

After about 3½ miles take the small, hidden left turning over a narrow bridge across the River Dart

(if you miss this turning simply continue, drive over the top of the A38 to the small roundabout and come back on yourself)

After the narrow bridge, follow the road to the right [BEWARE HUGE POTHOLE ON LEFT HALF WAY ALONG] and after 200 metres you will come to a one storey stone building. This is green fuse.

DIRECTIONS (avoiding narrow, hump-back bridge)

Come off the A38 and, instead of heading for Totnes, head for Buckfastleigh.

Follow the road into Buckfastleigh and past the petrol station on your right.

Follow this road for just under  $\frac{1}{2}$  a mile and Dart Mills is on the left, just before a sharp right bend (see lower picture).
